3. I have made every effort to prepare and submit the above mentioned document within the prescribed time.

4. On _____ day of _____ I submitted the above mentioned document for copying at the prison law library and was informed per copying policy, that I would have to wait one to three days before copies would be ready (see exhibit "A").

WHEREFORE, for the reasons stated above, good cause showing, I respectfully request that this honorable court grant me an extension of _____ days for the period of copying.

I declare under the penalty of perjury of the laws of the state of California that the above statement is true and correct. Executed at the Richard J. Donovan Correctional Facility, San Diego, California on the _____ day of _____.

Copying Procedure

1. Copies will be done at the library's convenience with a maximum three day turn around barring any problems such as lock downs, machine breakdowns, etc..

2. Only legal documents completed and ready to go to the courts will be copied (no partial writs will be accepted).

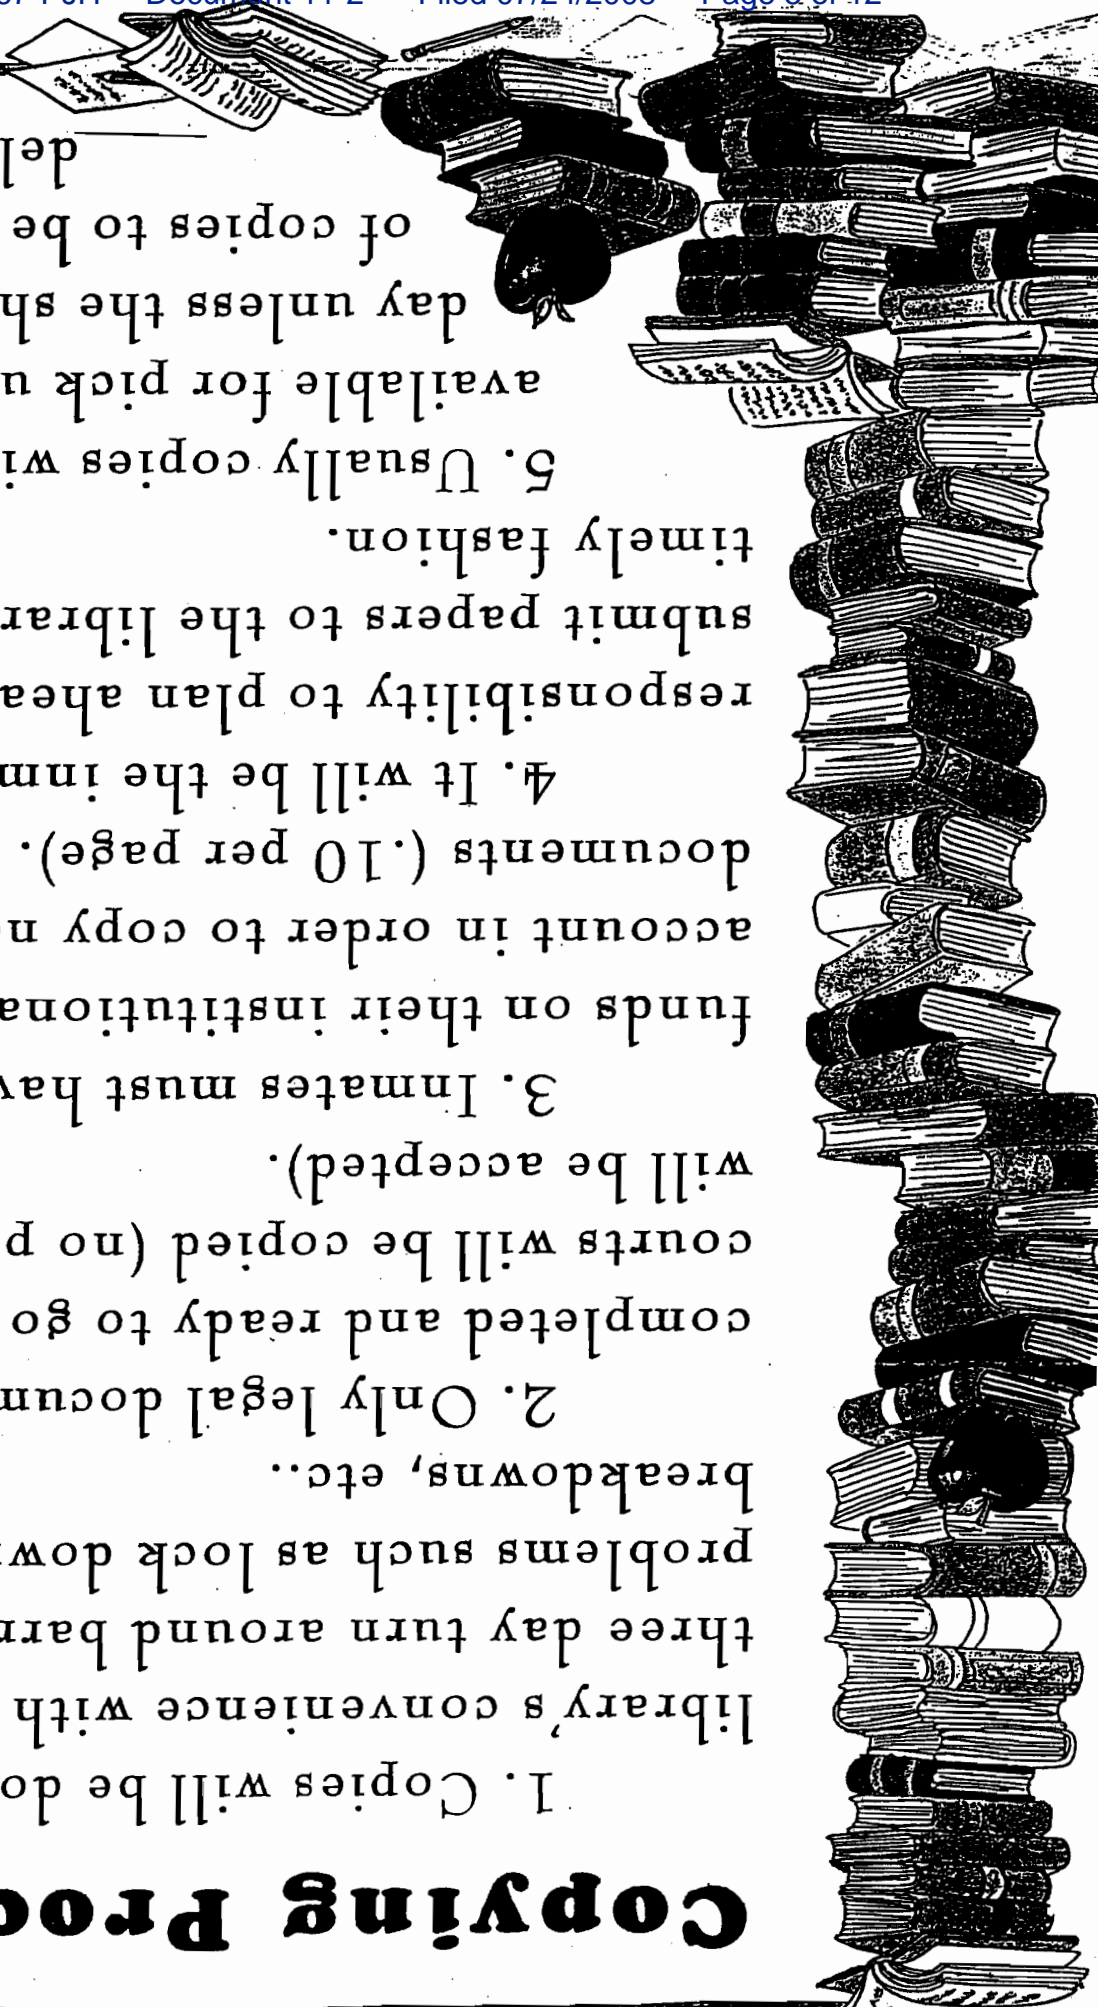

3. Inmates must have sufficient funds on their institutional trust account in order to copy nonlegal documents (.10 per page).

4. It will be the inmate's responsibility to plan ahead and submit papers to the library in a timely fashion.

5. Usually copies will be available for pick up the next day unless the sheer number of copies to be made delays copying.
